I Stood Beside the Flag Today

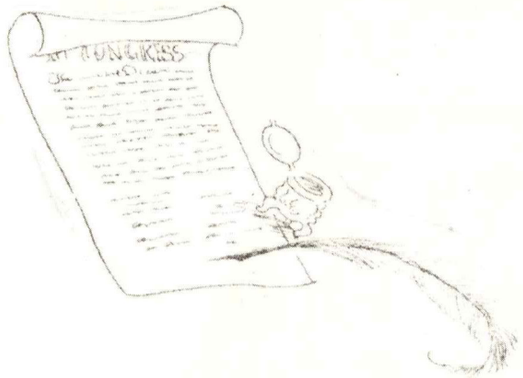
I stood beside the flag today
And watched it gently wave;
I saw amidst the stars and stripes
America, the great . . .

A land to which the masses turn,
A land that still is free,
A country that still has been spared
The rule of tyranny.

I stood beside the grand old flag,
The tried red, white and blue . . .
Compatriots, this flag and I,
Of a nation fair to view.

A nation built upon God's truth,
Where He is still the key
To keeping this, our glorious land,
A torch of liberty.

Loise Pinkerton Fritz



MS. JOY DAVIS

My Friend

Craig E. Sathoff

The value of a trusting friend
I never really knew
Until I chanced one lucky day
To find a friend like you.

It seems to guide my every step
And every deed I do
To know that I've a loyal friend
To tell my wishes to,

For friendship brings a state of mind
That manifests a peace.
A warming glow of happiness,
A meaningful release.

If friendship strengthens as it grows,
The years that are to be
Shall be especially blessed, friend,
With joys for you and me.

There are obviously two educations. One should teach us how to make a living, and the other should teach us how to live.
